

Mission Statement

My students and I will grow as a community of learners in a friendly, safe, and supportive environment. I will strive to make students participate in their local, national, and global societies. I am committed to having students value diverse perspectives and cultures, as well as the struggles and accomplishments of those who have influenced our lives today.